Learning Outcomes

By the end of this lesson, you will be able to:

1. Define GBV and identify its different forms
2. Recognise warning signs of abusive relationships
3. Explain Kenya's legal framework protecting against GBV
4. Apply safe reporting and refusal strategies

Slide 2: What is GBV?

GBV is any harmful act directed at a person because of their gender. It is a serious human rights violation.

| Type            | Example                         |
|-----------------|---------------------------------|
| Physical        | Slapping, kicking, assault      |
| Sexual          | Rape, defilement, harassment    |
| Emotional       | Constant insults, threats       |
| Economic        | Controlling money, denying fees |
| FGM             | Cutting of female genitals      |
| Forced Marriage | Child married without consent   |

Slide 3: Causes & Warning Signs

Recognising warning signs early can prevent GBV from escalating.

KEY TERM: Power Imbalance

When one person uses power to control, dominate, or harm another — the root cause of GBV.

■ Partner checks your phone without permission, isolates you from friends, or hits you EVEN ONCE — serious warning signs of abuse. Leave and seek help.

Slide 4: Legal Framework

Kenya has strong laws to protect you. Know your rights.

KEY TERM: Sexual Offences Act 2006

Criminalises rape, defilement (sex with anyone under 18), and sexual harassment. Minimum 10 years imprisonment.

KEY TERM: Protection Against Domestic Violence Act 2015

Protects against physical, sexual, emotional, and economic violence in homes and relationships.

■ ■ Your Rights

Slide 5: How to Report & Get Help

Whether it is happening to you or someone you know — take action now.

Wanjiku, 15, was being pressured by her uncle. She told her teacher who reported to the Children's Officer. The uncle was arrested. Wanjiku received counselling and continued her education.

Slide 6: Module Video

Watch carefully, then continue to the scenarios.

Slide 7: Real Talk — What Would You Do?

Pick your choice and see the consequence.

Slide 8: Refusal & Safety Strategies

Know what to say and do when you feel unsafe.
