Slide 2: Social Media & SRH — The Reality

Social media is a powerful tool — it can protect or harm your sexual and reproductive health depending on how you use it.

Positive Use	Negative Use
Access accurate health info (WHO, MOH Kenya)	Spread SRH myths and misinformation
Peer support communities for mental health	Body comparison and unrealistic beauty standards
Helpline contacts (Childline 116)	Online grooming and sexual exploitation
Health campaigns and awareness	Cyberbullying and harassment
Connecting to counsellors and services	Sexting pressure and revenge porn

Slide 3: Online Grooming & Sexting

Online predators are real. Knowing their tactics keeps you safe.

KEY TERM: Online Grooming

When an adult builds a relationship of trust with a young person online — through gifts, flattery, and emotional manipulation — to sexually exploit them.

Grooming Tactic	Red Flag
'You are so mature for your age'	Flattery to lower your guard
Gifts, airtime, money online	Creating obligation and dependency
'Don't tell anyone about us'	Secrecy = control
Asking for photos gradually escalating	Testing your willingness to comply
Wanting to meet alone offline	Moving from online to in-person exploitation

■ ■ ■ Sexting Warning

■ Once you send an image, you LOSE CONTROL of it forever. 'Revenge porn' (sharing intimate images without consent) is a crime under Kenya's Computer Misuse and Cybercrimes Act 2018. The person who shares it is the criminal — NOT you.

Slide 4: Body Image & Social Media

What you see on social media is not reality. Protect your self-image.

Mercy's Social Media Detox — Eldoret

Mercy, 16, noticed she felt worse about herself after every Instagram session. She unfollowed 30 accounts that promoted 'perfect bodies' and replaced them with science pages and art accounts. After two weeks, her self-esteem improved noticeably. Her school counsellor called it 'the best mental health decision a teen can make'.

Slide 5: Staying Safe Online

You have the right to a safe digital life. Here is your protection toolkit.

Slide 6: Module Video

Watch carefully, then continue to the scenarios.

Slide 7: Real Talk — What Would You Do?

Pick your choice and see the consequence.

Slide 8: Critical Media Literacy

Before you share SRH information from social media, ask these questions.

Question	Why It Matters
Who created this content?	Is it a credible health org or an anonymous account?
What is their purpose?	Inform, sell, shock, or manipulate?
Is there evidence for this claim?	Can you find it on WHO, MOH Kenya, or a medical site?
Could this be misleading?	Does it confirm a bias or spread fear?
Would a doctor agree with this?	Use professional health sources as a benchmark
